

PUBLICATION SCHEME

of the

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS FOR NORTHERN IRELAND

REVISED FEBRUARY 2008

APPROVED UNTIL 31 DECEMBER 2008

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the Publication Scheme of the Civil Service Commissioners for Northern Ireland (OCSC).

Civil Service Commissioners for Northern Ireland are responsible for ensuring that appointment to the Northern Ireland Civil Service (NICS) is made on merit in fair and open competition.

This publication scheme is a guide to the information the Commissioners publish or intend to make routinely available to the public.

ROLE AND STATUS OF THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS

Civil Service Commissioners were first appointed in 1855 to uphold the principle that selection for appointment to posts in the Civil Service should be on the basis of merit through fair and open competition. Civil Service Commissioners for Northern Ireland were first appointed in 1923.

The Northern Ireland Commissioners derive their responsibilities and authority from prerogative Orders in Council made by the Secretary of State. The Civil Service Commissioners (NI) Order 1999 gives the Commissioners specific responsibility for maintaining the Merit Principle, i.e. that selection for appointment to posts in the NICS should be on the basis of merit in fair and open competition.

The Commissioners' responsibilities are:

- To maintain the fundamental principle that selection for appointment to the Northern Ireland Civil Service is on merit on the basis of fair and open competition, including the approval of appointments through open competition to the most senior levels in the Northern Ireland Civil Service;
- To publish and maintain a Recruitment Code setting out the essential principles and procedures on which recruitment to the NICS must be based;

Revised February 2008

- Approving certain exceptions to the recruitment principle of selection on merit on the basis of fair and open competition;
- Auditing recruitment policies and practices followed by departments and agencies in making appointments to the NICS; and
- Requiring departments and agencies to publish information about their recruitment activity.

Under the Civil Service Commissioners (NI) Order 1999, the Commissioners may also consider and determine appeals made to them under the Northern Ireland Civil Service Code of Ethics.

The Commissioners also have a website (www.nicscommissioners.org) explaining their role and presenting key documents.

PURPOSE OF THE PUBLICATION SCHEME

This publication scheme responds to the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 which requires all public bodies to adopt and maintain a scheme for the proactive publication of information. These schemes are intended to ensure that information is made available to the public without the need for a specific request. Information which would be exempt under Part II of the Act, for example because it is sensitive or confidential is not included in our scheme. Such information may be edited out of documents published under the scheme.

Our aim in developing this publication scheme is to set out: -

- The classes of information we publish or intend to make available;
- How this information can be accessed; and
- Whether the information will be available free of charge or on payment.

Responsibility for administering the scheme rests with the Secretary to the Civil Service Commissioners, Rosemary Crawford, and the Deputy Secretary, Joanne Dowling, who can be contacted by phone on 02890 549487 and 02890 549425, respectively.

For more detailed enquiries about the Commissioners' publication scheme contact Maureen Tipping at OCSC.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

If an applicant is dissatisfied with a response from OCSC he/she can seek an internal review of that decision. A member of staff who was not involved with the original request will undertake the review. An internal review should normally be completed before an appeal may be made to the Information Commissioner. A request for an internal review of a decision not to disclose information should be made to the Deputy Secretary to the Commissioners who will respond within 20 working days.

If an applicant remains dissatisfied, he/she can seek an independent review by the Information Commissioner. Requests for a review by the Information Commissioner should be made writing directly to:
